

Designer, Illustrator, and Front-End Developer working in Chicago, Illinois

Work Experience

Lead Product Designer

Aggrego / Chicago Sun-Times / Wrapports

September 2013- December 2014

As lead designer, I handled all aspects of product design: Responsive web, iOS, Android, and Blackberry UI/UX, branding, illustration, print/graphic design

I worked alongside all Aggrego teams, including management, sales, and content to craft each product. This includes public speaking, pitch decks, presentations, prototyping, and powerpoints.

Projects I've lead include:

- The redesign of the largest Chicago suburb news network, Pioneer Press (which has since been sold for $23.5 million to Chicago Tribune)

The creation of the first Caribbean news network, Loop (which spans over 5 countries in 3 languages on 4 platforms)

- The creation of the Ireland news network, Today.ie (whose success helped secure a $10 million investment for Aggrego)
- The redesign of the Chicago Sun-Times and the nationwide expansion of the Chicago Sun-Times brand, the Sun-Times Network into 70 major US markets.
